St. Joseph Day – March 19th

Saint Joseph's Day is celebrated on March 19th and is commonly known as the Feast of St. Joseph. St. Joseph is the patron saint of the Catholic Church, unborn children and fathers.

Three interesting facts about St Joseph –

- Joseph is associated with the symbol of the carpenter's square to represent his trade.
- Joseph is also linked with the lily, which represents purity and his marriage to Mary.
- Saint Joseph has special significance in Sicily, as people believe he prevented famine ravaging the region in the Middle Ages.
